About the band

Maidstone Wind Symphony (MWS) is one of the UK's leading amateur wind ensembles. We are a friendly and ambitious group that is proud to champion contemporary music.

MWS was founded in 1998 by Brendon Le Page. Since then, the band has continued to flourish under the leadership of Jeremy Cooper, Jonathan Crowhurst, and our current Music Director, Roger Graham, who was appointed in 2018.

We welcome non-professional musicians from across the South East that play to grade 7-8+ standard.

MWS has collaborated with many of the world's finest wind and brass soloists including Brett Baker (trombone), Andy Findon (flute), Steven Mead (euphonium), Les Neish (tuba), Alistair Penman (saxophone) & Rex Richardson (trumpet).

We have also performed with other music ensembles including BAE Systems Brass Band, Byneset Musikkorps, Faversham Choral Society, Frysk Fanfare Orkestr, Kent Academy of Musical Theatre, Maidstone Choral Union, New Line Learning Academy and The Maidstone Singers.

MWS has released three recordings: Slide Projections (2012), Roar! (2017), and A Christmas Festival (2018).

Maidstone Wind Symphony is a registered charity (No. 1156003).

SUPPORT MWS AND PROMOTE YOUR BUSINESS TO HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE IN MAIDSTONE!

Every season, a handful of local businesses sponsor Maidstone Wind Symphony. Their support makes everything we do possible - from hiring rehearsal venues to buying new music.

Will your business support us this season?

For a £150 charitable donation to Maidstone Wind Symphony, your business will receive some great perks:

- 5 x half-page adverts in our concert programmes
- Your business listed in the patrons section of our concert programmes
- Your business name and website link on our website

MWS concerts regularly attract 200+ audience members, so that's over 1,000 people seeing your advert across the season.

PLUS: As we're a registered charity, your donation may qualify as an allowable business expense, potentially reducing your tax bill.
