ABOUT THE BAND

Maidstone Wind Symphony (MWS) is one of the UK's leading amateur wind ensembles. We are a friendly and ambitious group that is proud to champion contemporary music.

MWS was founded in 1998 by Brendon Le Page. Since then, the band has continued to flourish under the leadership of Jeremy Cooper, Jonathan Crowhurst, and our current Music Director, Roger Graham, who was appointed in 2019.

We welcome non-professional musicians from across the South East that play to grade 7-8+ standard.

MWS has collaborated with many of the world's finest wind and brass soloists including Brett Baker (trombone), Andy Findon (flute), Steven Mead (euphonium), Les Neish (tuba), Alistair Penman (saxophone) & Rex Richardson (trumpet).

We have also performed with other music ensembles including Byneset Musikkorps, Faversham Choral Society, Frysk Fanfare Orkestr, Maidstone Choral Union, New Line Learning Academy and The Maidstone Singers.

MWS has released three recordings: Slide Projections (2012), Roar! (2017), and A Christmas Festival (2018).

Maidstone Wind Symphony is a registered charity (No. 1156003).
